

PASSAGES: SUPPORT AND EDUCATION IN END OF LIFE ISSUES and
INTERFAITH COMMUNITY SERVICES
present

“It’s OK to Ask”...about end of life issues

Tani Bahti, R.N. of Passages will present a series of three classes addressing various aspects of making end of life decisions. These will be held at Interfaith Community Services in July 2009.

Dates: Mondays, July 13, 20, 27

Times: 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Place: Interfaith Community Services
2820 W. Ina Rd. in northwest Tucson

Topics of each session include:

7/13—“Navigating the Storm: Tools for the Caregiver”

7/20—“Pain Hurts Everyone: Understanding and Managing Pain”

7/27—“Worst Fear Meets Best Friend: The Hospice Alternative”

There is no fee for these sessions. Attendance at all 3 sessions is not required, though encouraged.

For more information, please contact Karen MacDonald at Interfaith Community Services:
520-297-6049

kmacdonald@icstucson.org

You can find more information about the classes and about the sponsoring organization at the Passages website:

www.passageseducation.org