

Interfaith Community Services Annual Volunteer Awards Nomination Form

Volunteers are the heart and soul of ICS, and we could not do what we do without you! Please nominate a deserving volunteer based on the following nomination categories.

1. Founder's Award – Outstanding Volunteer

The Founder's Award is named for Barbara Anderson, founder of ICS. This award recognizes an individual who contributes significant volunteer time and talent to ICS and who demonstrates an outstanding level of commitment to one or more of ICS's programs and services.

2. Director's Award – Exceptional Support

The Director's Award is named for June Head, former ICS Executive Director. This award recognizes an individual, group, organization, or business who has demonstrated an exceptional level of support to ICS by organizing an event, providing financial support, or assisting in other administrative areas of the organization.

3. Champion Award – Communitywide

The Champion Award recognizes an individual, group, organization, or business that provided outstanding support for our organization by furthering the ICS mission on a community-wide basis.
