Discussion series explores faiths

Interfaith Community Services is sponsoring a four-session discussion group based on the book, "The Faith Club." The group will meet Tuesdays, 7 to 8:30 p.m., April 29, May 6, 13 and 20, at St. Philip's in the Hills Episcopal Church, 4440 N. Campbell Ave.

"The Faith Club" was written by three women – one Muslim, one Jewish and one Christian. Discussion group participants will talk and learn together about different faith traditions, thereby exploring their own faith. Rev. Barbara Anderson, the founder of ICS, will facilitate the group.

Participants are encouraged to read "The Faith Club" beforehand. The authors are Ranya Idliby, Suzanne Oliver, and Priscilla Warner, and the publisher is Free Press, a division of Simon and Schuster, Inc.

Space is limited. Those interested are asked to RSVP to Karen MacDonald, ICS Senior Services and Outreach Manager, at 297-2738 ext. 221.
