New Members

Welcome to our newest member faith communities, bringing our total number to 40:

- Oro Valley Church of the Nazarene, Pastor Craig Coulter;
- St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church, Rev. John Smith, Rector;
- And St. Francis in the Foothills United Methodist Church, Rev. David Wilkinson.

Ice Cream Social

Join us July 27, 11 a.m. —2 p.m., for an Ice Cream Social and Open House here at ICS, 2820 W. Ina Road. Please bring items to stock the food bank.

Faces of ICS

Charlotte's gift

Charlotte Williams is 73. She lives alone and has to use an electric scooter to get around because of back problems. But that hasn't affected her ability with pots and pans in her kitchen, and recently she delivered a very tasty cake to the staff at ICS.

"People here have been helping me a lot," she said. "I just wanted to thank them."

Charlotte receives a network of services from ICS, including emergency food boxes from the Food Bank, transportation assistance from Caregiving Services, financial aid from the Emergency Assistance Program and health assistance from the Health Advocacy Program.

She has been receiving services from ICS since January 2004. Together, the programs have helped her remain independent and at home.

One program she doesn't use is Mobile Meals. "She likes to cook – and can," explained Maricela Reynaert, ICS Health Coordinator.

Lucky for us.

Drive gives Food Bank a big lift

Volunteers from the Church of the Apostles sort food at ICS.

The ICS Food Bank recently received a much-needed "booster shot" as it braces for another long hot summer.

A 1½ -day food drive by Church of the Apostles, 12111 N. La Cholla Blvd., brought in 3,000 pounds of food, said Frank Hayes, Food Bank Coordinator. Other smaller drives by congregations and individuals have also helped fill the Food Bank shelves – at least, for now.

"It won't last through the summer, but it's a necessary booster shot," Hayes said.

In an effort coordinated by Church of the Apostles member Kent Barker, volunteers held their drive on a Friday afternoon and all day Saturday at the Safeway Food & Drug Store, 12122 N. Rancho Vistoso Drive, in Oro Valley. In addition to the food, people also donated $290 in cash.

ICS extends its heartfelt thanks to all the caring and generous people who help us carry out our mission.

From the Executive Director

A special thanks to a wonderful Board

In recent years, ICS has undergone a mind-boggling transformation – in size, funding, structure, and even in name. I want to thank members of our Board of Directors who have helped to shape and carry forward our vision of services to help seniors, disabled individuals, and families in financial crisis.

At our June 12 Board meeting, we approved our new Board and slate of officers. There are several individuals who deserve special thanks.

Mac Fiske has been our President for the past three and half years. His strong leadership has been important as we worked to prepare the organization for sustainability and growth. We are pleased that Mac will continue on our board for this term.

Paul Lewis was part of the initial founding of ICS back in the 1980s. He returned to the ICS Board in 2003 as Vice President and Chair of Human Resources. While Paul will not return in the board position, he has promised to provide his invaluable insights to the Human Resources Committee.

We also thank Donna Hull for her service on the Board over the past several years. Congratulations on her recent writing awards!

Our new slate as of July includes the following with a brief

Outgoing President
Mac Fiske

description of their backgrounds or affiliations: Ed Jenkins, President (accounting and finance executive); Vicky Johnson, Vice President (ICS volunteer and dentist); Kevin Koch, Vice President of Faith Communities (educator with legal background); Lidia Allen, Treasurer (accounting and finance executive); and Betsy Sandlin, Secretary (ICS and faith community volunteer).

Other returning board members are Dwaine Greer (educator), Karen Hamar Bittmann (corporate marketing), Mac Fiske (business and banking), Josh Protas (Jewish Community Relations Council), and Dick Backus (government and business). Newly appointed members are Rubin Salter, Jr. (attorney), Mike Mumford (NW Medical Center – Oro Valley), Kathy Goff (University Medical Center), Kathy Kitagawa (KAK Compensation Services), and Ginger Sugimoto (Raytheon).

Our board members represent the true spirit of ICS – compassionate service. We thank each one for their dedication and commitment. You all make a difference in the lives of many.

Warm regards,

Bonnie Kampa, Executive Director

Monsoon Season Events

July 17 – Something for ICS volunteers. Volunteer In-service Training —Tuesday, July 17, 2-3:30 p.m. at Christ the King Episcopal Church. Training for volunteers on how to deal with health emergencies that may happen while working with recipients, how to lift wheelchairs safely, etc. Trainers will include a Red Cross volunteer and ICS staff. Call 297-6049 to register.

July 27 – Something for volunteers, friends and the full community. Friday, July 27, 11 a.m.—2 p.m., ICS Ice Cream Social. Stop by ICS, 2820 W. Ina Road, for ice cream, cake, cookies and great fellowship. Please consider bringing some items for the food bank or school supplies for the Gifts of Love Program. Thank you.

July 31 – Something for faith communities. Congregational Safety & Emergency Preparedness Workshop—Tuesday, July 31, 2:00-3:30 at Christ the King. Faith communities play an important role during times of community crisis. Laura Kitt-Hailey, Director of Health and Safety Services with the American Red Cross, will join ICS staff in providing information for leaders of churches, synagogues or other faith communities interested in enhancing their safety and emergency preparedness.

Used Golf Sale raises over $4,000

The Used Golf Equipment Sale, held April 21 and 22 at the Fox & Hound Smokehouse and Tavern, raised over $4,000 for ICS. Our thanks to Golf Chair Jerry Ahmann and all the volunteers who made this event a success. Also, thanks to Fox and Hound and Budget U-Haul, which provided a box truck to transport the equipment.

Thank you for grants

ICS is grateful for recent grant support from The Diamond Foundation; Home Instead Senior Care Foundation; RBC Dain Rauscher Foundation; The William & Mary Ross Foundation; the John and Margaret Schmidt Foundation; Trico Electric Charitable Trust; and Welcome Wagon Northwest.

Building Drive nears $440,000 goal

A year ago, it seemed as distant as the moon. But now, ICS is within only $40,000 of the estimated $440,000 it needs to build the new Caregiving Services Wing.

Thanks to the support from 130 donors (including those who purchased bricks for the Caring Garden between our existing building and the new wing), and a huge boost from Community Development Block Grants from Pima County, we are now on the last stretch of the campaign. Construction is expected to begin this fall.

There is still plenty of time to help with this effort! By August 1, we hope to raise the final $40,000 needed to begin

Current law allows tax-free gifts from IRAs to charities

Under the Pension Protection Act of 2006, those who are 70½ and older may contribute up to $100,000 from an individual retirement account or 401k to a qualifying charity and exclude the distribution from gross income.

Because the gifts are not included as income, they cannot be claimed as a charitable contribution deduction for tax purposes.

The provision will expire after the current (2007) tax year unless extended by Congress.

Ed Jenkins of the ICS Board of Directors said he and his wife, Kathleen, used the tax-free distribution to make a gift to ICS's Building Campaign.

"It let us do more and not have to pay tax on it," he said.

Please contact your tax accountant or financial planner for information about your specific tax situation. For information about making a gift to ICS, call Monnie Applegate at 297-6049 or mapplegate@icstucson.org.

'We Care' Golf Classic looks to be extra-special

The Nov. 12 "We Care" Golf Classic promises to be special in many ways:

- It's going to be at a very private site -- the Oro Valley Country Club -- where many golfers have never had a chance to play.
- It's going to be on Veteran's Day Holiday, Monday Nov. 12, with a color guard to provide an official start to the event.
- It's going to be a great day of golf foursomes playing a "Texas Scramble" format, followed by a social hour and great Awards Dinner.

Perpetual trophies will be awarded to the best net score for men's, women's, and couple's teams. There is also a perpetual trophy for best "pickup" team, consisting of golfers who signed up by themselves.

November is still a ways away, but it isn't too soon to start recruiting your foursome. Last year's event sold out with a field of 144 players.

The annual "We Care" Golf Classic features some serious golf, as these participants demonstrate.

The cost per golfer, which includes the Awards Dinner, is $125. Golfers also are encouraged to recruit personal golfer sponsors for $20 apiece.

Proceeds from the tournament will benefit ICS. Last year's event raised $28,000 to support ICS programs for seniors, disabled persons and people and families in crisis.

Tournament chairmen are Jerry Ahmann (219-1438) and Mike Parr (877-9557).

To learn more about the tournament, visit the event's website at www.wecaregolf.org.

Back-to-school 'Gifts of Love' needed

August is back-to-school time for Tucson children, and ICS is asking again for donations of school supplies for children of low-income families.

Examples of supplies that are needed include backpacks, pens, pencils, crayons, markers, rulers, scissors, three-ring binders, glue sticks and pencil boxes.

"Parents have to supply these things now, and they can easily run $100 per child," said Terri Patt-Smith, ICS Associate Director who oversees the Gifts of Love program.

"This is an opportunity for families and groups to make a difference for a family in need," Patt-Smith said.

Items can be delivered to the ICS office during the ice cream social on July 27 or by Aug. 15. If you have questions, please call 297-6049.

ICS welcomes Monnie Applegate as Development Director

Monnie Applegate

Welcome to Monnie Applegate, our new Development Director, who joined ICS on June 1 with many years of marketing and public relations experience.

"I'm thrilled to be a part of the ICS team and I look forward to working with the many volunteers and community leaders who have enabled ICS to achieve so much for our community," says Monnie.

She would love to hear from you to share and explore ideas for ICS community partnerships. You can reach Monnie directly at mapplegate@icstucson.org or at 297-6049, x 222.

Home-buying aid for single moms

Single female heads of households who could not otherwise afford to buy a home have a wonderful opportunity for home-ownership subsidies. The Temple Foundation, working with Chicanos Por La Causa, is offering several grants that would help with the down payment of a home. The successful candidates will also be involved in a home-buyer education program. Some of the criteria include:

- Stable employment for the last 18-24 months;
- Earnings lower than 80% of median income;
- Good credit history for the most recent 12-24 months.

If you know of someone who might be eligible, please contact Terri Patt-Smith at ICS (297-6049) for an initial screening.

Bequests and Other Special Gifts:

You can make a lasting gift to support ICS. For more information, call Bonnie Kampa or Monnie Applegate at 297-6049.

New program seeks to fill GAP for seniors in distress

She was 92 and she had fallen and couldn't get up.

It could have been a life-threatening situation. Fortunately, the woman had a Guardian Angel – an emergency signaling device provided by ICS.

With the Guardian Angel unit, she was able to send a distress signal to her daughter, who came to her rescue.

Guardian Angel Program (GAP) devices allow clients to call for help with the push of a button on a pendant worn around the neck.

Under a grant from the Alcoa Foundation, ICS is conducting a limited trial of the GAP devices for seniors or disabled individuals who cannot afford the monthly cost of a commercial lifeline system. So far, ICS staff members have been working out the logistics of the new program.

Beginning July 1, the program will be available at no cost for 20 recipients in five zip codes: 85705, 85711, 85712, 85716 and 85719. With additional funding, we hope to extend this service to others later in the year.

Volunteer technicians are also needed to install and service the units. They will help train the recipients and the responders on the program.

For more information contact Kelley Anderson, Caregiving Coordinator, at 297-6049, or kanderson@icstucson.org.

Concert taking shape

The next Music for the Soul concert is still months away, but planning for it is in full swing.

Music for the Soul 2007 will be held on Thursday, Nov. 8, at 7 p.m. at the Fox Tucson Theatre. This will be the concert's third year.

In just that short time, Music for the Soul has become a very successful fundraiser for ICS. But it also has become a wonderful friend-raiser – a unique event that celebrates the richness and diversity of sacred music in Tucson's faith community.

"This concert is a perfect expression of what Interfaith Community Services is all about – faith communities and volunteers working together to serve the community," says Bonnie Kampa, ICS Executive Director. "In this case, we're joining forces to create an evening of music, dance, chant and other faith arts."

Once again, the concert will be under the masterful creative direction of Dr. Jeffrey Jahn, director of the Arizona Repertory Singers.

Jahn and members of the concert committee are still working on the line-up of performers for the concert, but there are some confirmed acts:

- The Arizona Repertory Singers;
- The Buddhist Bells and Chant;
- Avineem, a Jewish rock group from Temple Emanu-El;
- God and U2, a Christian rock group from Christ the King Episcopal;
- The Tohono O'odham Basket Dancers;
- Rebecca Foreman, solo harp and vocal ensemble;
- Rev. Raven Gaston, solo piano (classical/spiritual) from Catalina United Methodist;
- K'DEO puppet ministry from St. Andrew's Presbyterian.

For information about the concert, call Monnie Applegate, ICS Development Director, at 297-6049.

Making a difference 'One stop at a time'

On May 18, Dan Marries of KOLD-TV News 13 told the story of how ICS volunteers make a difference to the community. Dan Marries knows ICS volunteer Danny Lemon through a church men's group and was intrigued with the work that Danny does as a driver for ICS Mobile Meals.

As Lemon said, "I've been so blessed in my life that I feel like I need to give back to society in some ways and this is one way I can do it."

After some weeks of research, Marries worked out the arrangements with KOLD to film Lemon on a Friday meal delivery route. The clip was aired that Friday evening. It featured Toby Shaman who said "living alone I get kind of lonely and it's nice to have somebody drop in." Toby is homebound and says that Mobile Meals keeps her from moving into a nursing home. "This is just a life saver."

From Danny Lemon's perspective, it's more than just delivering food. He has established friendships with many of the recipients, spending time talking about everything from Danny Hodges' golf swing to hair styles with Nan Drafz! In the words of anchorman Marries: "Danny is making a difference one stop at a time."

Thanks to Dan Marries and KOLD for getting the word out about the value of volunteering. During the summer months, up to 40% of our volunteers leave for the north or vacations. But folks like those in the KOLD story still need rides to the doctors or Mobile Meals deliv- ered. Get a good feeling by helping others...Please call Mina Jeffery, ICS volunteer coordinator today if you can help. If timing is impossible, remember that donations and food bank contributions also drop off in the summer. There are so many ways you can help!

Here's how to order your bricks for the ICS Caring Garden

ICS so far has sold $10,000 worth of personalized bricks to pave our "Caring Garden." This garden will be a special outdoor area between our existing building and the new Caregiving Services Wing for volunteers, visitors and staff.

For a donation of $125, you can purchase an engraved brick "in honor of" or "in memory of" special people in your life. It's a lasting tribute that will help us complete and furnish the new wing. You can order bricks with the form below.

Please reserve  bricks @ $125 ea.

Volunteer opportunities

Friendly Visitors: Be a friend to a home-bound senior. Spend very appreciated time visiting with seniors several times a month. Specific needs exist for male friendly visitors in the 85705 and 85745 zip codes. Training will be provided.

Office volunteers: Volunteers are needed to answer phones (including the front desk), greet visitors, help with office projects, and use the computer in several areas of the ICS office. The greatest need is all day Friday.
Call Mina at 297-6049.

Wish list

- $15,000 Champion sponsors for the golf tournament or Music for the Soul concert.
- 250 more brick sales by August to help toward our building fund goal.
- Food bank: Foods needed include spaghetti sauce, jelly, canned fruit, and cereal. Also, there is an ongoing need for staples like soup, tuna, canned meat, Jell-o, pasta noodles, and ready to eat foods.
